

2012 NESSA Fleet Champs

Barnstable and CCA

April 22, 2012

Highlights: We had 15 qualifying schools compete at Hyannis Yacht Club yesterday in shifty conditions, starting out from the SW 3-5 knots, then changing abruptly, pushing out the fog, but bringing in the rain. Wind picked up quickly from the N, NW and steadied out at 15 knots with gusts up to 18. The competition was really tight right up until the end of the day. Protests would keep the competitors on edge and waiting the final results. In the end, The Hotchkiss school of Lakeville, CT is our repeat winner. Congrats to Roger and his gang. Joining Hotchkiss in Seattle, WA at the Museum for Wooden Boats, May 12 and 13th is St. George's, CCA, and Tabor Academy. Job well done by Brent Jansen as PRO, and our judges for the day, Alexa Schuler, Nick Judson, and Greg Seigle. Finally a very special thanks to Hyannis Yacht Club, Cape Cod Academy and their parents for all their support throughout the day
